

Check-In, Dorm Housing, and Hospitality Suite Information

On-campus dorm housing must be reserved ahead of time as part of your Reunion Weekend registration. Housing is available starting Thursday evening, May 28 for the 50th - 70th Reunions only. All other classes can select on-campus dorm housing from May 29 - 31. Each night is $65 per adult, $15 for children ages 5 -17, and complimentary for children 4 and under. Please email reunion@conncoll.edu with questions.

Check-In for Reunion Weekend

First stop: the Check-In Desk. Check-in, collect your name badge, meal tickets, building access card, dorm key, swag, and more. Note: You will need your name badge to access all campus events throughout the weekend — please keep it on at all times. Reminder: you will need your meal and drink tickets for admittance to all events with food and bar service.

Ernst Common Room, Blaustein Humanities Center

- Thursday, 5/29: 3 - 7 p.m. Dorm access will be granted starting at 3 p.m. for the Classes of 1956-1976.
- Friday, 5/30: 9 a.m. - 10 p.m.
- Saturday, 5/31: 8 a.m. - 7 p.m.

Campus Dorm Housing

For alumni who have pre-registered for dorm housing, key pick-up will be located in the Ernst Common Room in Blaustein Humanities Center. You will be issued a physical key for your specific room as well an access card to gain entry to all buildings on campus. Keys and access cards must be returned to a collection box in your dorm at the end of Reunion Weekend or a charge of $25 will be applied for the access card and $75 per physical key. Collection boxes are located in the Common Room of each dorm for easy drop-off.
